

J. M. A. TEAM WON AT MARBLE HILL

The J. M. A. foot ball team went over to Marble Hill last Monday and defeated the Will Mayfield Academy team of that place to a score of 33 to 0. They did not take their strongest team along but were able to defeat the Bollinger county boys easily. The trip was made overland, the boys leaving here at six o'clock in the morning and returning at night. The game with the Normal at the Cape is not a certainty, as the Cape boys will not come to Jackson, claiming that they would not get a square deal. But the correct solution is that they are afraid, the Jackson team's reputation has them bluffed.

THEIR HORSE RAN AWAY

The two Misses Medleys were visiting in our city Sunday and when they started home the horse got frightened and one of the girls jumped out and got but little hurt. The other young lady stayed in the buggy and as the horse turned the corner and turned down South High street she was thrown out and considerably hurt, but not dangerously so, we hope. The horse ran into Dr. B. W. Hays's buggy and tore the top off of it, tore the top off of the one to which it was hitched, turned it upside down, broke loose from it and ran on down the street toward home.

A REAL ESTATE DEALER OF NOTE

If there's a land agent anywhere that can beat our friend, R. M. Sawyer to it, then we would like to see the color of his tresses. R. M. Sawyer is the representative in this section of the best farm land, and has more business than he can successfully handle. Of course this is a mighty good state, and we expect to live here for at least a hundred years yet. If we were going to change residences we do not know of any country beneath the sun that we could get a better "look-in" for business than in the very section represented by Mr. Sawyer. All eyes are focused on Sawyer's land bargains just now.

WILL USE COPPER FOR ROOFING

The matter of putting on copper or zinc on the new court house roof came up before the court and commissioners yesterday, and after carefully considering the matter it was decided that the contractors should stick to the contract and place on the copper. The contractors accepted the decision of the court and commissioners and work will now go on again and if we have no more disturbances the new court house will be ready to move into by spring at least.

Our Little City One That Is Steadily Improving

There is no town in southeast Missouri that has so steady a growth as our city, but a little boom will help things along. The lot sale that we had in north Jackson some time ago was of much help to the town. What was then an old field is now laid out in nice yards and some ten or fifteen residences built on them. This summer Jackson has had some good buildings go up.

SHAWNEETOWN SIFTINGS BY CORRESPONDENCE

Aunt Nervey Wilson fell last week and got badly hurt, but she is improving nicely now.

Clark Reid and Roy Stevenson attended the teachers' institute at Jackson last week.

Amos Boren was in town on business one day last week.

Dr. Morgan went to Dutch-town and stayed a few days last week.

James Davenport and John Schneider passed through town last Saturday with a nice bunch of hogs.

Mayme Browning also attended the teacher's institute last week.

Quarterly meeting is being held at Epworth church this week. Miss May preached a fine sermon at Epworth last Sunday night.

Frank Caldwell, county assessor, was here last week taking the annual assessment.

Frank Shraw, from the hills, was in town last Saturday.

Quite a few from Appleton were at Epworth church last Sunday night to hear Miss May preach.

Doc Whitledge is through gathering corn and has gone to the Cape, where he will make his home.

RESOLUTION

We the teachers of the Cape Girardeau County Teachers Association vote the following resolutions:

Resolved, that we want to thank the patrons of the Public School of Jackson for the use of the building and the citizens of Jackson for their hospitality.

Resolved, that we appreciate the very helpful addresses of Dr. Carter of the State Department and Prof. Ankony of the State University:

Resolved, that we have received many helpful suggestions from the talks of Supt. Thielman of Bonne Terre.

Resolved, that we wish to express our appreciation of the instructive talks of Prof. Dearmont and Prof. Roberts of the Normal:

Resolved, that we appreciate the untiring efforts of Supt. McNeely in behalf of the teachers of the Cape Girardeau County and the interest which he is manifesting in the upbuilding of the Public Schools.

Resolved, that we appreciate and heartily commend the work of the committee on the Course of Study.

C. M. Mercer, Chrm.
Miss Bessie Baker, Sec'y.

NOTICE.

The undersigned desires to state that he wants no hunting on his farm without permission and any one violating this order will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Wash Gladish.

The residences of J. W. Hunter, Chas. Behrens, A. M. Rice, C. W. Henderson are good buildings and are a credit to our city. Likewise in the business circle, we have the business buildings of Goodwin and Jean and that of C. H. Wolters. The first named building will be the largest poultry establishment in southeast Missouri and this is the city in which to locate such a building. Let the improvements go on.

CANE CREEK SKETCHES BY MEDDLESOME MATTIE

Wheat is looking fine.

Everart Herzinger had a sale of personal property last Saturday.

John Thorne moved from Wm. Craig's farm to Dick Strong's on White Water this week.

Henry Overbeck spent last week with relatives at Lutesville.

Miss Rosebud Snider who is attending S. E. Normal, came home on a visit last Sunday.

"IT'S I" RESENTS LETTER OF "IT'S ME"

Editor Jackson Herald.

Dear Sir: While we all read your valuable paper, and are glad to see the good Herald come our way every week, so we can read all the news we see items from different parts of the county which we are glad to read. Now the most important items are the ones that happen in our nearest neighbor towns. Among them we notice in the Oriole items by "It's Me," where he says "Egypt is dead, who will be the undertaker."

We are not a peace disturbing kind of people and for that reason we are not going to raise any trouble about a little thing told on our town like that, but if the writer of the Oriole items will come to Egypt and undertake to buy any of the stores, the flour an feed mill or even undertake to drink all the whisky or beer they have in the saloon he will find that such an undertaker will be hard to find. The writer of this has been to Oriole funerals and did not see hearses and undertaker. They go and buy their last overcoat from the undertaker, the same as we do at Egypt. Now if the writer of Oriole items knew how we enjoy being rubbed he would quit rubbing Egypt and try rubbing on some other village.

We have no telephone connection now and for that reason we can not get news only through our county papers, so we are glad that Egypt is mentioned. We do love to read news, when it happens at Egypt. Now we don't want "It's Me" to quit writing what he dreams or heard about Egypt. Egypt may be sick or feeling bad, but she has two good doctors that have good remedies for all ills. Wonder if Oriole has that. Come again, "It's Me." "It's I."

BROKE HIS LEG

While hauling a load of wood Wednesday morning Tom Smith got his leg broken. He was hauling through a broom sage patch and the wagon ran over a stump, catching his leg between the wheel and the bed of the wagon. His leg was set and he was resting fairly comfortable last evening.

DAISY DOINGS*BY A TRAMP

Health is very good except some bad colds.

We had a good rain Friday.

John Hahs died Thursday and they couldn't bury him Friday on account of rain.

Philip Seabaugh is the happiest man in the county. A baby girl has arrived at his house to stay.

Daisy is going back. Alvin Leine married and left the shop and went on the farm. He was a good blacksmith but doesn't know anything about farming.

Charles Harris sold his interest in the store to Mrs. E. W. Harris.

T. B. Willis moved to Robert A. Willis'.

Max Dunn is hauling lumber from Kurrville.

Squire Hahs was out Monday looking after the old pensioners and their widows.

A Tramp.

THE CONTRACTORS ARE PUSHING CITY WORK

The city authorities are having the power house pushed to completion. If our citizens will all take light the light proposition will be a success and as soon as possible our water system should be placed in the hands of a company that will extend it all over town. To do this it may be necessary for the city to sell to them what we have at a good reduction and grant them a franchise, but it will be better for the town. This is not saying but what the council are doing as well as they can with the money in hands. Our city has started to improve and we should keep it going.

NOTICE.

The undersigned desires to say that he wants no hunting on his farm without permission. He will prosecute any one found violating this order to the full extent of the law. W. A. Poe.
